I am the Claimant in this matter and I voluntarily dismiss this lawsuit pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a). Such dismissal shall be without prejudice, with each side to bear its own costs and fees.

1. At this time I am unable to deal with this matter pertaining to my wife's sudden medical issues due to stress (that same wrongdoers directly) caused, the unfortunate matter is taking up all of my free time.

Rule 11: (1) it is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation;
(2) the claims, defenses, and other legal contentions are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing existing law or for establishing new law;
(3) the factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically, so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and

(4) the denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence or, if specifically, so identified, are reasonably based on belief or a lack of information.

I affirm under penalty of perjury the foregoing is true and correct according to United States law
